SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

CORE Group's Unlocking Potential Blog Series

In January 2021, CORE Group hosted the annual Global Health Practitioner's Conference (GHPC21) with the theme Unlocking Potential: Prioritizing Child & Adolescent Health in the New Decade*.* The conference aimed to STRENGTHEN commitment and technical assistance for child and adolescent health and empower young people to advocate for their rights to health and well-being; MOBILIZE and strengthen cross-sectoral partnerships and innovation for child and adolescent health research, advocacy, implementation, and financing in the next decade; and SHARE evidence-based research, disaggregated data, and emerging solutions to ensure improved health outcomes for babies, toddlers, children and adolescents.

The Unlocking Potential blog series aims to continue the dialogue from GHPC21 and highlight youth voices in global health. We invite you to submit an article according to the below guidelines:

- Aim for a length of 750 to 1000 words.
- Topics can be cross-sectoral but should be related to child and adolescent health.
- Please provide 1-3 visuals with description to accompany your text.
- There should be proper attribution of photos, data, quotations, and outside content referenced in the article. JPG or PNG format. If you submit a stock photo, please ensure it is royalty-free and able to be shared and modified for marketing/commercial purposes.
- Articles must be your original work and not published elsewhere.
- Our editorial team reserves the right to edit your article, including grammar, spelling, and formatting.
- Use headings and short paragraphs to break up your text.
- Double check your work before submitting, we are counting on our guest contributors to have expertise in their chosen topic.
- Submit your completed blog post to Avani Duggaraju, aduggaraju@coregroup.org with "guest post for Unlocking Potential blog" in the subject line. Please send the blog post as a Microsoft Word document or editable Google document with the authors name, title, email, and organization included.

Submitted posts will be reviewed and published on our website within 10 business days if accepted. Authors will be notified of publication.
